GREAT BRITAIS.—There was no news of political importance. Parliament was sitting. The French and other Continental journals accuse the English Parliament of favoring the recent Carlist attempt in Spain and the insurrection in Sicily. A reform meeting was held in Hyde Park on Sunday the 8th. The proceed-ings were tame, and there were not more

The sub-marine cable for Gibralter will be ready by the middle of September. Heenan was before the magistrates at Derby on the 7th, charged with the inten-

Mr. Leach appeared in his behali, and seid that he (Heenan) had never broken the peace in England, and had no inten-tion of doing so. True, he may have made use of harsh language in the excite-ment of his capture, when his passion was aroused, but when it is considered that he had been hunted out of eight counties, while his opponent, Sayers, was allowed to go with the greatest impunity, be did feel sore at the treatment be was receiving. The North Briton arrived at Queenstown on the evening of the 25th, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Republican National Convention. We learn by the Cincinnati Commercial that the Hall was crowded. Among the auditors were Rev. John G. Fee, Mr. Hanson, and another crowded. Among the auditors were Rev. John G. Fee, Mr. Hanson, and another Berean exile, besides several prominent Democrats of Kenton County.

Dr. Thorkeld, of Kenton, was appointed President; Messrs. W. D. Gallegher of Old-ham, and W. H. Luke, of Pendleton' Vice Presidents. A Committee was appointed to report business the next day.

The Hon. David Fisher, of Cincinnati, made a short solid speech, and was followed by Cassius M. Clay. The audience were impatient to hear Mr. C., and greeted him with general applause. When the applause subsided Mr. C., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, By the Republican party of the Commonwealth of Kentucky in State Convention assembled, That conscious of their patriotism and loyalty to the Consti-tution and the laws, they claim the same privileges and immunities, as citizens of the Union, Democratic or other parties; the liberty of speech, of the press, and the ballot, and in their defenses against ag-gression from whatever sources, they will make a common cause and stand by each other to "the uttermost." Revolution in Spain.

The flag of Don Carlos is again unfurled in Spain. Carlos is a brother of King Ferdinand, who died in 1833. Under the Salic Law, which excludes females from the throne, he was successor to the Crown. But this Law Ferdinand abrogated in order that his daughter, Isabella, might reign.— So, at the age of three years old, she stepped from the nursery to the Throne. Carlos rebelled. He was defeated after a long war, and exiled to France. But a strong party sided with him. Ever since, they have fomented occasional revolts, to place him or his son in power. But Queen Christina, the Regent, Espartero, Narvaez and O'Donnell, successfully upheld the cause of the youthful Queen. The Carlists bave been kept under for twentyseven years. They have chosen their time for a new outbreak with sagacity. The and his companions going to a place where they were almost certain of arrest. Naples in Insurrection.

The cruelties and oppressions of Francis the Second have at last driven his subjects to insurrection-a result which was clearly foreseen by all but that second Calignla, his minions and backers. So far, the accounts received are exceedingly mergre; while they appear to have been got up in interest of that young tyrant, and hence interest of that young tyrant, and hence can be relied upon only in part. The movement began on the 4th or 5th instant, at Messiua, on the Island of Sicily, the telegraph representing it as a mere riot, caused by certain "roughs" of that place. The government however viscosity of the standard of the s place. The government, however, viewed the matter differently, for large bodies of troops were instantly despatched to Sicily, where the insurrection was spreading at Lard atest accounts. The British analysis ador, by order from London, and the Sartina and the priestly influences by which he is controlled. If the insurgents can only hold their own for a few weeks; there can be little doubt regarding the final result. Austria is no longer ready to march her legions into Southern Italy in behalf of despotism, as she has been accustomed to do.—N. Y. Post.

A Sad Incident.

Mr. Samuel McKee, a delegate to Charleston from Pittsburg, this morning received a telegraphic dispatch announcing the sudden death of his daughter, a beaulaughing heartily at a story which some one of them was relating, at the same time leisurely opening the dispatch. A glance at it told him the mournful truth, and in an instant he burst into tears, and was bourne helplessly into his state-room. The sud. den transition from joy to sorrow has completely prostrated him. His friends deep-ly sympathize with him in his bereavement. —Cor. Philadelphia Enquirer.

Big Boston was brod by Em. Blackburn, Woodford county, Kentucky, who imported Short Imp, Morgan Imp, Sovereign American Eclipse, shark, Lance, Bartoner, John Bascomb, Port Boy, Arab, Gray Eagle, Wagoner, Camden and Old Bohton, the strongest race horse the world ever produced. As the competitor of the world even by Easton, Boston carried 115 lis and run i miles in 7 misutes 33 seconds; a fest that was never equalled by any horse in America. Big Boston was sired by Boston, he by Flungell, he by the Goddiphin. Dam Polly Hopkins, by Bertran, great dam, Setilia, great, great grand dam by the Imp Dusaro. He is 16 hands, weighs 1220 lis. Red bar, black legs, mane and tail. He has run his mile in Iminute and 50 seconds; half mile in in 50 seconds, never was thoroughly trained, but showed speed in his trials equal to the fastest. He is a half brother to Lexington that was sold for $15,000; also to Lecompte that was sold for $10,000, by W. Wells to Mr. Ten Brock. These run the great race between America and England. For beauty, strength, action and fine figure Big Boston is not surpassed by any horse in America. At the Wayne County Fair hast fall, he took the eveceptakes over the French Norman that sold immediately after the Fair for $800. He also took the premium over the Moss horse, Black Sampson, that was sold for $500. In fact to use the language of Judge Cox and a thousand others, he is a perfect horse. Some ten of his colta took premiums at said fair.
